Ellen Rennie

Today's first reading is taken from the book of Deuteronomy, Chapter 26, verses 1 to 11. Listen now for the word of God.....

When you have come into the land that the Lord your God is giving you as an inheritance to possess, and you possess it, and settle in it, you shall take some of the first of all the fruit of the ground, which you harvest from the land that the Lord your God is giving you, and you shall put it in a basket and go to the place that the Lord your God will choose as a dwelling for his name. You shall go to the priest who is in office at that time, and say to him, 'Today I declare to the Lord your God that I have come into the land that the Lord swore to our ancestors to give us.' When the priest takes the basket from your hand and sets it down before the altar of the Lord your God, you shall make this response before the Lord your God: 'A wandering Aramean was my ancestor; he went down into Egypt and lived there as an alien, few in number, and there he became a great nation, mighty and populous. When the Egyptians treated us harshly and afflicted us, by imposing hard labour on us, we cried to the Lord, the God of our ancestors; the Lord heard our voice and saw our affliction, our toil, and our oppression. The Lord brought us out of Egypt with a mighty hand and an outstretched arm, with a terrifying display of power, and with signs and wonders; and he brought us into this place and gave us this land, a land flowing with milk and honey. So now I bring the first of the fruit of the ground that you, O Lord, have given me.' You shall set it down before the Lord your God and bow down before the Lord your God. Then you, together with the Levites and the aliens who reside among you, shall celebrate with all the bounty that the Lord your God has given to you and to your house.

*For the Word of God in Scripture, for the Word of God among us, for the Word of God within us.   THANKS BE TO GOD.

The psalm for this morning is Psalm 100, verses 1 to 4 found on Pages 838 of the BAS. We will say verses 1-4 together with the Prayer at the end.

This morning's second reading is from Philipians Chapter 4, verses 4 to 9.

Listen now to the Word of God.

Rejoice in the Lord always; again I will say, Rejoice. Let your gentleness be known to everyone. The Lord is near. Do not worry about anything, but in everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known to God. And the peace of God, which surpasses all understanding, will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus.

Finally, beloved, whatever is true, whatever is honourable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is pleasing, whatever is commendable, if there is any excellence and if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things. Keep on doing the things that you have learned and received and heard and seen in me, and the God of peace will be with you. [Silence followed by]

For the Word of God in Scripture, for the Word of God among us, for the Word of God within us.....      THANKS BE TO GOD.

Gradual Hymn: #429 – For the Beauty of the Earth

Rev'd. Andy O'Donnell: The Lord be with you.

People: And also with you.

The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Saint John, in the 6th Chapter, beginning at the twenty-fifth verse. [John 6:25-35]

People: Glory to you, Lord Jesus Christ

When they found him on the other side of the lake, they said to him, 'Rabbi, when did you come here?' Jesus answered them, 'Very truly, I tell you, you are looking for me, not because you saw signs, but because you ate your fill of the loaves. Do not work for the food that perishes, but for the food that endures for eternal life, which the Son of Man will give you. For it is on him that God the Father has set his seal.' Then they said to him, 'What must we do to perform the works of God?' Jesus answered them, 'This is the work of God, that you believe in him whom he has sent.' So they said to him, 'What sign are you going to give us then, so that we may see it and believe you? What work are you performing? Our ancestors ate the manna in the wilderness; as it is written, "He gave them bread from heaven to eat." ' Then Jesus said to them, 'Very truly, I tell you, it was not Moses who gave you the bread from heaven, but it is my Father who gives you the true bread from heaven. For the bread of God is that which comes down from heaven and gives life to the world.' They said to him, 'Sir, give us this bread always.'

Jesus said to them, 'I am the bread of life. Whoever comes to me will never be hungry, and whoever believes in me will never be thirsty

The Gospel of Christ ALL: Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ

With thanks to Lowell Grisham

Presider: With grateful hearts we bow ourselves at Jesus' feet, to praise God and give thanks for God's compassion which covers the whole earth: Gracious and Holy One, hear our prayers for all your creation, and especially for those who are ill, scorned or outcast, as we pray: God holds our souls in life, and will not allow our feet to slip.

Litanist: Empower your Church to cleanse and renew your people, O God. Let those who live with stigma and prejudice know your compassion; embrace and heal those who stay at a distance because of fear or rejection. God holds our souls in life, and will not allow our feet to slip.

Merciful One, fill all leaders with compassion and vision to recognize the suffering of those near and far and to reach out to them with empathy and care. God holds our souls in life, and will not allow our feet to slip.

Compassionate One, look upon any who suffer from devastating diseases; visit persons in exile, refugees and immigrants. Comfort them with your grace, and empower us to use our abundant resources to bring healing and love to our most vulnerable neighbors. God holds our souls in life, and will not allow our feet to slip.

Cleanse our hearts, O Generous One, that this community may be a haven of faithfulness and service, free from arrogance and division, reaching out with grateful trust to reconcile and heal the earth. God holds our souls in life, and will not allow our feet to slip.
