PROCLAMATION OF THE WORD

Reader: Lynn O'Donnell, Lay Reader

This morning's first reading comes from the Book of Joel in the 2nd Chapter, beginning at the 21st verse.

[Joel 2:21-27]

Do not fear, O soil; be glad and rejoice, for the Lord has done great things!

*Do not fear, you animals of the field,
for the pastures of the wilderness are green;
the tree bears its fruit,
the fig tree and vine give their full yield.*

*O children of Zion, be glad and rejoice in the Lord your God;
for he has given the early rain for your vindication, he has poured down for you abundant rain,
the early and the later rain, as before.*

*The threshing-floors shall be full of grain,
the vats shall overflow with wine and oil.*

I will repay you for the years that the swarming locust has eaten, the hopper, the destroyer, and the cutter, my great army, which I sent against you.

*You shall eat in plenty and be satisfied,
and praise the name of the Lord your God, who has dealt wondrously with you. And my people shall never again be put to shame.*

You shall know that I am in the midst of Israel, and that I, the Lord, am your God and there is no other.

And my people shall never again

be put to shame. [Silence followed by:]

*For the Word of God in Scripture, for the Word of God among us, for the Word of God within us, THANKS BE TO GOD.

We will read Psalm 126 together:

When the Lord restored the fortunes of Zion, then were we like those who dream.

Then was our mouth filled with laughter, and our tongue with shouts of joy.

Then they said among the nations, "The Lord has done great things for them."

The Lord has done great things for us, and we are glad indeed.

Restore our fortunes, O Lord, like the watercourses of the Negev.

Those who sowed with tears will reap with songs of joy.

Those who go out weeping, carrying the seed, will come again with joy, shouldering their sheaves.

[PRAYER AFTER THE PSALM]:

Praise to you, God of our salvation. Your generous gifts surpass all that we can ask or imagine. You have delivered us from the exile of sin and restored us to new life in Jesus Christ our Saviour. Glory and honour and praise to you for ever and ever. Amen.

This morning's second reading comes from the first letter of Paul to Timothy, in the 2nd Chapter beginning at the 1st verse.

[1 Timothy 2:1-7]

Listen now for the Word of God.....

First of all, then, I urge that supplications, prayers, intercessions, and thanksgivings should be made for everyone, for kings and all who are in high positions, so that we may lead a quiet and peaceable life in all godliness and dignity. This is right and is acceptable in the sight of God our Saviour, who desires everyone to be saved and to come to the knowledge of the truth. For there is one God; there is also one mediator between God and humankind, Christ Jesus, himself human, who gave himself a ransom for all — this was attested at the right time. For this I was appointed a herald and an apostle (I am telling the truth, I am not lying), a teacher of the Gentiles in faith and truth. [Silence followed by:]

*For the Word of God in Scripture, for the word of God among us, for the Word of God within us. THANKS BE TO GOD

Gradual Hymn: CP 259 "For the Fruit of all Creation"

*The Lord be with you. And also with you

The Holy Gospel of Our Lord Jesus Christ according to Saint Matthew

[Matthew 6:25-33]

Glory to you, Lord Jesus Christ

'Therefore I tell you, do not worry about your life, what you will eat or what you will drink, or about your body, what you will wear. Is not life more than food, and the body more than clothing? Look at the birds of the air; they neither sow nor reap nor gather into barns, and yet your heavenly Father feeds them. Are you not of more value than they? And can any of you by worrying add a single hour to your span of life? And why do you worry about clothing? Consider the lilies of the field, how they grow; they neither toil nor spin, yet I tell you, even Solomon in all his glory was not clothed like one of these. But if God so clothes the grass of the field, which is alive today and tomorrow is thrown into the oven, will he not much more clothe you—you of little faith? Therefore do not worry, saying, "What will we eat?" or "What will we drink?" or "What will we wear?" For it is the Gentiles who strive for all these things; and indeed your heavenly Father knows that you need all these things. But strive first for the kingdom of God and his righteousness, and all these things will be given to you as well.

The Holy Gospel of of our Lord Jesus Christ:

Prayer

Loving and compassionate Lord, we come into your presence giving thanks for the partnership between the Territory of the People and the Diocese of Montreal and for the many ways your grace is evident to us as we work together to build up your kingdom.

We give thanks for how our brothers and sisters in the Territory of the People have been fulfilling their vision of journeying into your new creation and trusting with faith and courage in the guidance of your Holy Spirit.

We give thanks for your gift of this earth and that you call us to be faithful stewards of creation. We confess we have not fulfilled your will in this regard and we regret the current effects of climate change that we feel around us. We grieve as wildfires have scorched your earth in the Territory and destroyed many communities. Gracious Jesus, forgive us, and may your healing love be with all people who have lost their homes, jobs and communities. Be with them and guide them as they find new life.

We give thanks Lord for the gift of your church, and for how you call us to be one with you. We confess that we have not always been faithful in loving one another. We repent of the sin of Residential schools in the Territory and of how we denied to accept that every native person was created in your image. We repent of this sin, and ask your forgiveness. We pray that we may all see you in all our brothers and sisters.

Be with our partners in the Territory as they continue to find unmarked graves of children, and suffer the effects of indoctrination. May they, through the power of your Holy Spirit be made whole again and continue to love you and their neighbour as themselves.

We give thanks Lord that you are always leading us even when we feel adrift. Help us to come through this pandemic and to see what your vision for us at this time. In this time of transition, both in your church and in the world, may we know your constant presence with us. We pray for all the faithful in the Territory as they gather to discern your will in the future. May you raise up strong leaders that will encourage everyone to journey together in praising you and working for the coming of your kingdom.

*Gracious God, loving Jesus, and empowering Holy Spirit, hear our prayers. All this we ask in your name. Amen.

*Lord in your Mercy, hear our prayers.
