THE PROCLAMATION OF THE WORD
Reader: Heather Mills Dufresne

The psalm for this morning is Psalm 8 found on Page 711 of the BAS. We will all repeat the Psalm together with the Prayer at the end

Lord our governor, how exalted is your name in all the world!
Out of the mouths of infants and children your majesty is praised above the heavens.

You have set up a stronghold against your adversaries, to quell the enemy and the avenger.

When I consider your heavens, the work of your fingers, the moon and the stars you have set in their courses.

What is man that you should be mindful of him?

The son of man that you should seek him out?

You have made him but little lower than the angels;
you adorn him with glory and honour;

You give him mastery over the works of your hands;
you put all things under his feet;

8 All sheep and oxen, even the wild beasts of the field,
The birds of the air, the fish of the sea, and whatsoever walks in the paths of the sea. O Lord our governor, how exalted is your name in all the world!

Prayer

Blessed are you, creator of heaven and earth; amid the immensity of the universe, you are mindful of us and seek us out. Blessed are you for the gift of your Son, who humbled himself to share our life that we might be raised with him to glory and splendour. Blessed be your holy name, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, now and for ever. Amen

Today's first reading is taken from the Proverbs, Chapter 8 verses 1 to 4, and 22 to 31 [Proverbs 8:1-4,22-31]

Listen now for the word of God.....

Does not wisdom call, and does not understanding raise her voice?

On the heights, beside the way, at the crossroads she takes her stand; beside the gates in front of the town, at the entrance of the portals she cries out:

'To you, O people, I call, and my cry is to all that live.

The Lord created me at the beginning of his work, the first of his acts of long ago.

Ages ago I was set up, at the first, before the beginning of the earth.

When there were no depths I was brought forth, when there were no springs abounding with water.

Before the mountains had been shaped, before the hills, I was brought forth—when he had not yet made earth and fields, or the world's first bits of soil.

When he established the heavens, I was there, when he drew a circle on the face of the deep, when he made firm the skies above, when he established the fountains of the deep, when he assigned to the sea its limit, so that the waters might not transgress his command, when he marked out the foundations of the earth, then I was beside him, like a master worker; and I was daily his delight, rejoicing before him always, rejoicing in his inhabited world and delighting in the human race.

[Silence followed by]

For the Word of God in Scripture, for the Word of God among us, for the Word of God within us.

THANKS BE TO GOD.

This morning's second reading is taken from Romans, Chapter 5 verse 1-5 [Romans 5:1-5]

Listen now for the Word of God.....

Therefore, since we are justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom we have obtained access to this grace in which we stand; and we boast in our hope of sharing the glory of God. And not only that, but we also boast in our sufferings, knowing that suffering produces endurance, and endurance produces character, and character produces hope, and hope does not disappoint us, because God's love has been poured into our hearts through the Holy Spirit that has been given to us. [Silence followed by] For the Word of God in Scripture, for the Word of God among us, for the Word of God within us.....

THANKS BE TO GOD.

Gradual Hymn: #381 "Praise, My Soul" {Tune: Praise, My Soul}

Rev'd. Andy O'Donnell:

The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Saint John, in the 16th Chapter, beginning at the twelve verse.

[John 16:12-15]

People: Glory to you, Lord Jesus Christ

'I still have many things to say to you, but you cannot bear them now. When the Spirit of truth comes, he will guide you into all the truth; for he will not speak on his own, but will speak whatever he hears, and he will declare to you the things that are to come. He will glorify me, because he will take what is mine and declare it to you. All that the Father has is mine. For this reason I said that he will take what is mine and declare it to you.

ALL: Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ

how exalted is your Name in all the world.

Litanist: Holy and mysterious One, you have given to your church peace with the Father through our Lord Jesus Christ, and through Christ we have been justified by faith and obtained access to the grace in which we stand: Guide your Church into all truth through the Spirit of truth, that we may faithfully praise you and serve you always. Blessed Trinity, One God; voice and live into the fullness of life as you intend. Blessed Trinity, One God;

how exalted is your Name in all the world.

You have led us into a good community where neighbors attend to one another with mutual care and accountability: Let us hear the call of wisdom and understanding, that we may live creatively and increase the measure of truth, beauty, and goodness that can be shared among all people. Blessed Trinity, One God;

how exalted is your Name in all the world.
